Grade _____ Date _____

PFEW is a one-of-a-kind, hands-on summer program that offers current high school sophomores and juniors an interactive and challenging opportunity to see what it is like to run their own business.

What does PFEW stand for? _____

Our speaker today will elaborate on some of the activities at PFEW, including the roles to which students may be elected within a “company”. These roles and/or teams are relevant to running a successful business. List the different roles/teams, their responsibility within the company and traits needed for that role/team.

Role/Team:	Responsibility in the company:	Traits needed:

Based on your own skills and interests, if you attended, what role would you be best suited for and why?

PFEW is an excellent opportunity to build your teamwork and leadership skills. Take a moment to explain the importance of each in the workplace and how each can improve your career retention and advancement opportunities.
